STATISTICS & TOURISM INFORMATION DEPARTMENT MINISTRY OF TOURISM

KINGDOM OF CAMBODIA

Dear all readers,

The Ministry of Tourism (MOT) collates and publishes tourism statistic reports annually providing important information pertaining to the tourism industry. This annual report has been very well received over the years. The commitment of the Statistics and Tourism Information Department and research team generate invaluable statistics providing fundamental indicators for national and international investors and valuable materials beneficial to the private sectors and all stakeholders.

I am pleased to share that our tourism sector has been enjoying a consistent growth at a remarkable rates. The year 2011saw a 14.9% increase over the year before in international tourist arrivals to Cambodia with more than 2.88 million, of which Siem Reap - Angkor received over 1.6 million with an increase of 23.4%. Also, the number of domestic tourist recorded an estimation of 7.92 million with an increase of around 3.3% over the previous year. Based on the going rate, we are optimistic that Cambodia will be able to attract over 4.5 million international tourist arrivals by year 2015. In order to achieve the above fast-growing trend, the Royal Government has further intensified the promotional campaign "Cambodia – Kingdom of Wonder" where all world heritages are gathered, namely Angkor Wat and Preah Vihear Temple while at the same time pushed up the competitive movement of "Clean City, Clean Resort, Good Service", a potential tool to provide a standard quality tourism services for all visitors, making Cambodia a world-class destination.

I firmly believe this Statistics Report 2011 will be a vital means for either academic purposes or documentation for researchers, private sectors and all stakeholders as it may serve. Plus, this statistics will also act as fundamental indicator for national and international investors to invest in Cambodia.

I sincerely thank you for your interest and wish you contentment.

Sincerely, 2 4

Dr. THONG KhonMinister of Tourism

Khmer History

The Mon-Khmer race developed slowly during the first six centuries of the Christian era. Under Indian influence, a powerful maritime empire called "Funan" ruled over all the shores of the Gulf of Siam. Within a short time, this new power known as Chenla absorbed the Funanese Kingdom. In the late 7th century, Chenla broke into two parts: land Chenla (to the north) and water Chenla (to the south along the Gulf of Thailand). Land Chenla was fairly stable during the 8th century, whereas water Chenla was beset by dynastic rivalries.

At the beginning of the 9th century, the kings set up their capital in the present province of Siem Reap. For nearly six centuries, they erected two hundred temples as well as their sanctuaries in the Angkorian area of some 400 square kilometers in the Siem Reap Province.

King Suryavarman II (1113-1150) built the temples such as Angkor Wat, Thommanon, Chau Say Tevoda, Preah Palilay, Preah Pithu, and Banteay Samrè.

Jayavarman VII (1181-1220) was best known for his huge building program. Firstly, he built Ta Prohm (1186) and Preah Khan (1191) to dedicate to his parents. Secondly, he erected Banteay Kdei, Srah Srang, the Terrace of the Leper King, the Terrace of the Elephants, Neak Pean, Ta Som, Ta Nei, and some others in other parts of the country. Thirdly, he founded his great capital, Angkor Thom. Finally, in the center, he built the Bayon with its two hundred stone faces.

The decline of the Angkor era began after the death of King Jayavarman VII in the early 13th century. Due to the Siamese invasion and the limitation of the irrigation system, Khmer power declined so much that the king was finally obliged to move to the vicinity of Phnom Penh in 1431. Resulting from a series of Siamese and Cham invasions, the country was put as a French protectorate in 1863.

After regaining Independence in 1953, the country has had several names:

- 1. The Kingdom of Cambodia (under the Reachia Niyum Regime from 1953 to 1970);
- 2. The Khmer Republic (under the Lon Nol Regime from 1970 to 1975);
- 3. Democratic Kampuchea (under the Pol Pot Genocidal Regime from 1975 to 1979);
- 4. The People's Republic of Kampuchea (1979-1989);
- 5. The State of Cambodia (1989-1993);
- 6. The Kingdom of Cambodia (1993 until now).
