In the beginning of 2020, the world's tourism is devastated by the COVID-19 pandemic and Cambodia is no different, our tourism industry contribution to the nation's GDP is at most 13% in previous year. However, we are very optimistic that the world's tourism will recover fast and shows promising growth in many years ahead as part of the recovery process by providing direct jobs to help alleviate poverty and accelerate national economic growth toward responsible, sustainable and inclusive tourism development.

In 2019, Cambodia received 6.6 million international tourists increasing 6.6% compared to 2018 by three main passages such as air accounted for 4.40 million, and land and waterways accounted for 2.21 million arrivals. Based on this report to realize our strategic plan for 2012-2020 to welcome 7 million international arrivals will face some difficulties and challenges due to COVID-19 pandemic. In this tough situation of Covid-19 and the uncertainty of world's economy, the Royal Government has taken measures and several tourism campaigns in response to the circumstances of the tourism hardship in compliance with World Health Organization and Cambodian Ministry of Health.

It is with great pride that we host ASEAN Tourism Forum (ATF) with the theme "ASEAN - A Community of Peace and Shared Future". #### Khmer History

The Mon-Khmer race developed slowly during the first six centuries of the Christian era. Under Indian influence, a powerful maritime empire called "Funan" ruled over all the shores of the Gulf of Siam. Within a short time, this new power known as Chenla absorbed the Funanese Kingdom. In the late 7th century, Chenla broke into two parts: land Chenla (to the north) and water Chenla (to the south along the Gulf of Thailand). Land Chenla was fairly stable during the 8th century, whereas water Chenla was beset by dynastic rivalries.

At the beginning of the 9th century, the kings set up their capital in the present province of Siem Reap. For nearly six centuries, they erected two hundred temples as well as their sanctuaries in the Angkorian area of some 400 square kilometers in the Siem Reap Province.

King Suryavarman II (1113-1150) built the temples such as Angkor Wat, Thommanon, Chau Say Tevoda, Preah Palilay, Preah Pithu, and Banteay Samrè.

Jayavarman VII (1181-1220) was best known for his huge building program. Firstly, he built Ta Prohm (1186) and Preah Khan (1191) to dedicate to his parents. Secondly, he erected Banteay Kdei, Srah Srang, the Terrace of the Leper King, the Terrace of the Elephants, Neak Pean, Ta Som, Ta Nei, and some others in other parts of the country. Thirdly, he founded his great capital, Angkor Thom. Finally, in the center, he built the Bayon with its two hundred stone faces.

The decline of the Angkor era began after the death of King Jayavarman VII in the early 13th century. Due to the Siamese invasion and the limitation of the irrigation system, Khmer power declined so much that the king was finally obliged to move to the vicinity of Phnom Penh in 1431. Resulting from a series of Siamese and Cham invasions, the country was put as a French protectorate in 1863.

After regaining Independence in 1953, the country has had several names:

- 1. The Kingdom of Cambodia (under the Reachia Niyum Regime from 1953 to 1970);
- 2. The Khmer Republic (under the Lon Nol Regime from 1970 to 1975);
- 3. Democratic Kampuchea (under the Pol Pot Genocidal Regime from 1975 to 1979);
- 4. The People's Republic of Kampuchea (1979-1989);
- 5. The State of Cambodia (1989-1993);
- 6. The Kingdom of Cambodia (1993 until now).
